

EXAMINATION RULES

These rules apply to any external examination or examination practice at St Peter's College. For instance:

- Junior Examinations
 - NCEA examination practice eg Mid-year examinations
 - NCEA internal examination
 - NCEA external examination
 - Cambridge (CIE) Examination practice eg Mid-year examinations
 - CIE Examination or practical
1. You must attend and attempt all examinations. If you cannot sit the examination you must have sought the permission of the school prior or obtained a medical certificate on the day of the examination. Failure to do so will result in a zero grade.
 2. For NCEA in the case of point one, failure to complete this means you will not get the right of re-examination.
 3. Bring all your own equipment eg pens and ruler etc. Put in a clear plastic bag. No pencil cases.
 4. If you need a calculator, ie Mathematics it must be an NCEA or CIE specified model without extra functions programed in. Only exception A Level Maths.
 5. From the time you enter the room; you are silent until you have left that room.
 6. You cannot communicate with anyone apart from the examiners.
 7. You do this by putting up your hand and waiting.

Cheating

If you break any of the rules above, bring any written material into the room or communicate with someone in the examination this will be considered cheating and the consequences are -

- Automatic fail in the examination with no right to re-sit.
- Parent informed.
- Goes on school record and NZQA are informed if it is an NCEA examination.
- School takes disciplinary action.

Gentlemen, it is simple.

- Respect yourself
- Respect your peers
- Respect your school
- Do what is right.
