COURSE DESCRIPTION

Geography is the study of the environment as the home of people. It seeks to interpret the world and how it changes over time – past, present, and future. It explores the relationships and connections between people and both natural and cultural environments. Geography investigates the ways in which features are arranged on the earth's surface.

It describes and explains the patterns and processes that create them. Students learn to think spatially and use maps, visual images and new technologies to obtain, present and analyse information. Topics studied include population, development and geographic skills.

Level 1: History

CREDITS	COURSE COSTS	LEADS INTO
20 (12 Internal / 8 External)	Nil	Level 2 History

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS: Open Entry

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course serves as a useful introduction to the demands of senior history for NCEA students. There is a strong emphasis on New Zealand history and how significant events have affected New Zealanders. The new Level 1 Standards allow for richer learning experiences of key events in history which lead towards a better understanding of New Zealand identity and how events have had an impact on our society.

The internal Achievement Standards allow students to conduct their own research into events which impacted on New Zealand history and an investigation of different peoples' perspectives in relation to an event. The external Achievement Standards focus on resource interpretation, extended writing and an investigation of a significant New Zealand event.

Topics Offered:

- Origins of World War II
- Case Studies of Significant New Zealand Events (exact topics change annually)
- Work on interpreting historical sources (both primary and secondary)
