Year 13 Waikato/ 13 Auckland / RS Scholarship

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS	QUALIFICATION	COURSE COSTS
Students must apply to and be accepted by the University of Waikato or the University of Auckland. Minimum requirements to apply: CAMBRIDGE: 170 points. NCEA: Level 2 Merit Endorsement (50 credits at Merit or above).	University of Waikato paper in Ethics; University of Auckland paper in Critical Thinking	$16

COURSE DESCRIPTION

St Peter's College has teamed up with the University of Waikato to offer students a first-year university correspondence paper in Moral Philosophy and the University of Auckland to offer students a paper in Critical Thinking.

Waikato: Coordinated and led by a teacher from St Peter's College, students begin the two-term course by studying contemporary ethical theories: Utilitarianism, Deontology/Kantian Ethics and Virtue Ethics. They then progress to debates in applied ethics including euthanasia, abortion, animal rights, privacy, the justification of criminal punishment, genetic enhancement, pornography and freedom of expression.

Students submit three research essays online, demonstrating both understanding and critical philosophical engagement with one moral theory and two issues in applied ethics. They are also assessed once a week for their willingness and ability to discuss and debate these topics rationally in class.

When the University of Waikato course finishes near the end of Term 2, students immediately begin preparation for the Religious Studies Scholarship exam to be taken at the end of the year.

Auckland: This course is a general education paper, which means it will count towards a degree at Auckland and other New Zealand universities. It is offered via Auckland University's Young Scholars Programme.

This course teaches students how to tell a good idea from a bad one and gives them the ability to objectively analyse and evaluate arguments and ideas based on logic and evidence. It hones students' skills in the analytical, reflective thinking required for effective problem-solving in the workplace and beyond. In addition to logic, it covers areas of psychology and ethics related to a wide range of subjects which benefit from sound critical thinking skills.

Students are assessed throughout the university semester by means of regular online discussions, tests and assignments.

Once the course is complete, students will focus on Religious Studies Scholarship.

Year 13 Theology and Philosophy / RS Scholarship

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS	CREDITS	COURSE COSTS
12 credits from Year 12 SPC or permission from the Head of Faculty or the Deputy Headmaster Curriculum	24	$16
COURSE DESCRIPTION
Year 13 SPC offers 4 achievement standards, each worth 6 credits, each assessed internally. The first standard compares and contrasts Christian and secular worldviews. Either the book of Genesis or the Book of Revelation takes centre stage in the second standard comparing the literalist and historical-critical interpretations of such famous stories as creation, the fall and the flood or such symbols as the beast, 666 and the seventh seal. In the third standard students explore the founding of the Catholic Church in Aotearoa New Zealand and the effect it has had on society today; while in the last they look at the Catholic Church's understanding of the ethics of Abortion. There may be changes to the standards depending on the needs of the students. Some students may be selected to prepare for Religious Studies Scholarship.

A level English

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

at least a C in AS English

COURSE COSTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course consists of two papers; Shakespearean and Other Pre-Twentieth Century Literature (Paper 5), and Twentieth Century Literature (Paper 6). Students will be expected to adopt an academic approach to prescribed texts, developing an in-depth and nuanced understanding of a text's central concerns, a sensitivity to how language creates meaning, and a thorough knowledge of relevant contextual details. In addition to this, students will be introduced to critical perspectives on texts and learn how to engage with the critical discourse that has developed in response to texts and authors. This is a demanding, but also very enriching, course. Students will have the opportunity to encounter a wide range of Literature, from William Shakespeare's canonical plays, to more contemporary works that make bold departures from tradition. This course prepares students for further study in a range of disciplines at tertiary level due to the high levels of analysis, critical thinking, intertextuality and argumentation.

HUMANITIES FACULTY

Head of Faculty: Mr Jakub Kalinowski, jkalinowski@st-peters.school.nz

A Level Classical Studies

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

C grade in AS Classical Studies

COURSE COSTS

Topic Booklets, $45

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course is a direct follow on from AS Classical Studies. While containing topics that are broader and cover a more comprehensive and in-depth range of themes and ideologies, the assessment format and essay structure remain largely the same. Thus, the students will find themselves refining their essay technique to a very sophisticated standard.

It is encouraged that those who take A-level Classics also take the Scholarship Classics timetabled class due to the direct overlap of both content and essay technique.

Cambridge A Level Classical Studies is made up of two topics: history and literature.

- The history topic analyses the Persian and Peloponnesian Wars and the relationships between Athens and her neighbours including Sparta. Athens and Sparta had different approaches to government and battle strategy and both aspects are analysed in depth. The thematic undertone throughout the topic is the influence of democracy on the growth of the Athenian Empire.
- The literature topic, analysing Homer's Iliad and Odyssey allows students to consider the actions of Homeric heroes and their interactions with the gods. The thematic undertone is the motivation of Homer as a poet and how his works are reflective of core socio-cultural ideologies in Ancient Greece

A Level Geography

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

C Grade in AS Geography

COURSE COSTS

Students are encouraged to purchase the course Study Guide, which covers both the AS and A Level Geography syllabus. The book can be ordered online from Book Depository and costs approximately NZ$30 including shipping.
Cambridge International AS and A Level Geography Revision Guide.
ISBN: 978 144441 81487

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The A2 Geography course is a continuation of the AS Geography course. This course aims to develop candidates' awareness of the relevance of geographical analysis to understanding and solving contemporary human and environmental problems. The course introduces candidates to the main elements of Physical and Human Geography and the inter-relationships between these components. It encourages an understanding of the principal processes operating at different scales within Physical and Human Geography; develops candidates' sense of relative location, including an appreciation of the complexity and variety of natural and human environments; and explains the causes and effects of change over space and time on the natural and human environments. The course aims to develop candidates' ability to handle and evaluate different types and sources of information; develop candidates' ability to think logically, and to present an ordered and coherent argument in a variety of ways; and to promote candidates' awareness of the need for understanding, respect and co-operation in conserving the environment and improving the quality of life both at a global scale and within the context of different cultural settings.

Topic areas: Advanced Physical Geography: Two of the following themes will be studied: Tropical environments; Coastal environments; Hazardous environments; Arid and semi-arid environments.

Advanced Human geography: two of the following themes will be studied – Production, location and change; Environmental management; Global interdependence; Economic transition.

Assessment: TWO one-and-a-half-hour exam papers are written at the end of the year, which covers all aspects of the syllabus – but does offer some choice of questions.

A Level History

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

C Grade in AS History or higher

COURSE COSTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course builds upon the skills and knowledge attained in the A.S. History programme. This course is only open to Year 13 students who have successfully completed the A.S. History component the year before.

The revised syllabus - first introduced in 2022 - retains the majority of the content of the old programme – The Cold War. Students who are interested in the world around them today will enjoy learning about the challenges, conflicts and controversies of the Cold War period, which have helped to shape our contemporary world as we know it. There is an interpretations/source-based component, which focuses on the writing of history (historiography). Additionally, there is a content-based component, which examines students' writing, critical-thinking, analysis and argument skills.

The syllabus aims to develop:

- A greater knowledge and understanding of historical periods or themes
- A greater awareness of historical concepts such as cause and effect, similarity and difference, and change and continuity
- An appreciation of the nature and diversity of historical sources available, and the methods used by historians
- An exploration of a variety of approaches to different aspects of history and different interpretations of particular historical issues
- The ability to think independently and make informed judgements on issues
- An empathy with people living in different places and at different times
- A firm foundation for further study of History at tertiary level

The main topics taught are:

- The Origins of the Cold War (historical interpretations focus only)
- How did US–Soviet relations develop between 1950 and 1980?
- Why was there a crisis over Cuba in the 1960s and how did it affect the US–Soviet relations?
- How did the arms race affect US–Soviet relations?
- Why did the Cold War come to an end in 1989?
- The Cold War in Asia – de-colonisation, the Korean War, The Vietnam War and Sino-US relations

A Level Design & Technology (Product Design)

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

At least C in AS Design Technology

COURSE COSTS

$140

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a continuation of AS Design and Technology. Candidates grades from AS and A Level are combined to form the overall grade for the subject.

A Level Design and Technology consists of two parts:

Part 01: This is a portfolio for a spatial design completed in class. This is weighted at 40% of the overall grade. Candidates are expected to develop their AS Level project further, going into more depth to resolve the design to an appropriate standard. Candidates use their outcome from AS to develop, plan for production, make a prototype, and exhibit this outcome to an audience.

Please note that candidates can start a new project in A Level but must complete the criteria from AS level AND A Level in their design portfolio.

Part 02: This is a written paper weighted at 60% of the overall grade completed during end of the year examinations. The paper is completed in 3 hours and split into 2 sections. Section A tests material and manufacturing knowledge in the form of short written answers, long answers, and quick sketching. Section B requires candidates to design an original outcome to a given problem using a variety of drawing techniques combined with annotation and analysis.
